WHAT DOES APOGEM CAPITAL DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please note that this privacy notice applies only to individuals who receive or have received a financial product or service from us mainly for personal, family or household purposes. It does not apply to institutions. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Name, address, birth date, social security number, income and household information.
- Information about your account balances and financial transactions with us, such as types of products you purchased, account status, or trading history.
- Information gathered from our websites, such as through online forms, site visit data and information collection devices ("cookies").
- Information from outside sources, such as public information.
- Information collected from consumer reporting agencies.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Apogem Capital chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

What we do

How does Apogem Capital protect my personal information?

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that meet state and federal regulations. Access to customer information is limited to people who need the information to perform their job responsibilities. We regularly update and improve our security standards, procedures, and technology to protect against unauthorized access to your information.

How does Apogem Capital collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account, or invest or apply to invest in our funds
- Conduct transactions in your account, such as trades, deposits or withdrawals
- Provide us your income information
- Show us your government-issued ID for verification purposes
- Provide account information

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
